ABOUT KEN

Since becoming a chef in the mid-1970's, Ken Frank has earned a stellar reputation for his personalized style of cooking, grounded in the French cuisine he grew to know and love while living in France as teenager. Frank first achieved national acclaim when he was Chef of La Guillotine Restaurant at age 21 in 1977. At that time he was a pioneer, insisting on using only the freshest, seasonal, quality ingredients. He was the original Chef at Michael's in Santa Monica, considered the Los Angeles birthplace of "California Cuisine," which he left in 1979 to open the first La Toque on the Sunset Strip at age 23. After a 14-year run, Frank sold the original La Toque in 1994 and spent the next year working for The House of Blues. In 1996, he opened the award-winning Fenix at the Argyle Hotel. He finally heeded the call of the wine country and moved north to open a new La Toque in Rutherford in 1998. After a successful ten year run in Rutherford, Frank moved his signature restaurant to the new Westin Verasa Napa, in the fall of 2008.

La Toque at The Westin Verasa Napa is a showcase for Chef Frank's modern French cuisine and his passion for fine wine. This "French chef in a California body," as he likes to call himself, has pushed his cuisine in a more harmonious wine friendly direction and the restaurant has become well known for its savvy wine pairings.
